

Connect 4 Life

Accountability for Donors Policy

1. Financial Transparency

- We commit to providing clear and comprehensive financial statements, detailing the allocation of funds, administrative expenses, and project outcomes.

2. Project Updates

- Regular financial reports will be made accessible to donors, demonstrating transparency in our financial management.
- Donors will receive regular updates on the progress and impact of funded projects, ensuring transparency in the use of their contributions.
- Detailed reports will include achievements, challenges faced, and future plans for sustained impact.

3. Confidentiality of Donor Information

- We pledge to handle donor information with the utmost confidentiality and will not share personal details without explicit consent.
- Donors can trust that their information will be securely stored and used only for communication purposes related to their contributions.

4. Accessibility and Communication

- We commit to maintaining open lines of communication with donors, responding promptly to inquiries and providing channels for feedback.
- Regular newsletters and updates will be shared to keep donors informed about organizational activities and impact.

5. Compliance with Regulatory Standards

- Connect 4 Life will adhere to all relevant legal and regulatory standards governing fundraising and financial accountability.
- Any changes in our policies or practices will be communicated to donors in a timely and transparent manner.

6. Donor Engagement Opportunities

- Donors will be provided with opportunities for direct engagement, including events, webinars, or on-site visits to witness the impact of their contributions firsthand.

7. Ethical Fundraising Practices

- We pledge to uphold ethical fundraising practices, ensuring that donors are not subjected to undue pressure and that all fundraising efforts align with our mission and values.

By adhering to these principles, Connect 4 Life aims to build and maintain trust with our donors, fostering a transparent and accountable relationship that ultimately contributes to the success of our shared goals.
